

* Live Outside the Pack

From the beginning, Live Outside the Pack was created by The University of Texas at El Paso who wanted to share their youth tobacco prevention campaign. As time went on, like-minded people came to the site and built a community of positive, encouraging individuals with a wide range of video interests. We hope that you feel inspired to show us both your creative side as well as your friendly side.

* Uploading

Live Outside the Pack exists to provide you with a space to showcase your creativity and share your life. As such, we do not allow you to upload videos that are commercial in nature or videos that you did not make yourself. See the Uploading Guidelines below for more details. You affirm that you are either more than 18 years of age, or an emancipated minor, or possess legal parental or guardian consent to upload material to the website.

* Speech

The Internet is a wonderful place, but we have all noticed that it can also provide people with the means to insult and harass others without taking the full responsibility for their words. A community that allows that type of behavior will quickly decay, so we insist that while you are on Live Outside the Pack you respect the people you encounter and their videos. You are free to disagree, but you are not free to attack people simply for your amusement. If you wouldn't say it to someone's face, don't say it on OutsideThePack.com. If you cannot conduct yourself in a respectful manner, you will be removed.

* Community

OutsideThePack.com is not a sea of eyeballs that you must trick into increasing your view count. It is a vibrant community of intelligent and creative people. We strongly encourage you to find people who share your interests and connect with them here. The more you interact with the community, the more interest in your work there will be. Get involved and you will enjoy the rewarding experience that OutsideThePack.com can provide.

* Uploading Guidelines

In order to upload to OutsideThePack.com you must own all the rights to your videos and follow the rules set forth in our Community Guidelines. If you do not follow these simple rules, we reserve the right to delete your account without warning.

- Only upload videos you created. You may only upload videos you have created yourself or participated closely in the creation of.
- Directors, DPs, editors, musicians, graphic effects artists, and actors may all upload work that they have contributed significantly to the creation of.
- "I have permission" does not mean you created it. Public domain videos are also prohibited.
- No Commercial use. You may not upload commercials, infomercials, or demos that actively sell or promote a product or service.
- Exceptions: Independent production companies, authors, musicians, non profits, churches, artists, and actors may show or promote the work they have created, anyone else cannot.
- Businesses may not use Vimeo to externalize their hosting costs. Vimeo (including Vimeo Plus) is not a business service.
- No videos containing ads before or after the video unless given explicit permission from a staff member. Videos with any advertisements in them, including links to commercial sites, regardless of content, will be removed.
- No MLM, get rich quick, cash gifting, work from home business, or any other dubious money making ventures are allowed.
- No product promotions or sales videos, such as real estate walkthroughs.
- We reserve the right to allow specific commercial content for coordinated sponsored advertising campaigns on Vimeo.
- Content policy No gameplay videos, "fan vids", sexually explicit videos, movies, TV, trailers, or anything else you found on the web that you did not create yourself.
- No sexually explicit and/or illicit material or pornography.
- No videos that incite hatred, include hate speech, or depict extreme violence.
- No TV, movies, trailers or other videos you find on the web. You may post videos of yourself on TV, as long as you have the rights to do so and the video is limited to your involvement in the program only.
- No videos that are simply compilations of scenes from TV or movies.

- No captures of video games or gameplay, regardless if it is edited or not. Machinima with a story is allowed, provided the story is more than "guys doing exactly what the game was made for (eg skateboarding or shooting people)". Machinima videos must be properly labeled as such in the video description to avoid accidental deletion.
- Video game developers may post videos of their work provided they cite their involvement in the description of the video (maps and mods to commercial games don't count). Here we are talking about development videos, not commercial trailers.
- Users uploading popular or professional content that they have created should add their role and involvement in the video description and on their profile to avoid accidental deletion.
